

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of:

THE INTERCONNECTION AGREEMENT)
NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN AT&T)
COMMUNICATIONS OF THE SOUTH)
CENTRAL STATES, INC. AND BELL SOUTH)	CASE NO. 96-482 TELECOMMUNICATIONS, INC. PURSUANT)
TO 47 U.S.C. SECTION 252)

O R D E R

On November 6, 1996, BellSouth Advertising and Publishing Corporation ("BAPCO") moved for limited intervention in this proceeding and moved to limit the scope of the arbitration between BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. ("BellSouth") and AT&T Communications of the South Central States, Inc. ("AT&T"). In support of its motions, BAPCO asserts that on October 11, 1996, AT&T filed a petition with the Commission to arbitrate certain issues in its proposed agreement with BellSouth pursuant to the Telecommunications Act of 1996. Portions of AT&T's petition for arbitration concern matters directly related to directory publication which affect the interests of BAPCO, not BellSouth. It is BAPCO that publishes directories, and not BellSouth. Thus, AT&T and any other alternative local exchange carrier that have directory publication needs must negotiate and contract directly with BAPCO. BAPCO further asserts that on August 14, 1996 it entered into a complete directory publication agreement with AT&T. Thus, according to BAPCO, all issues involving directory publication have been resolved, leaving nothing to arbitrate in this proceeding.

The petition for arbitration filed by AT&T requests terms and conditions of a proposed agreement with BellSouth for interconnection and for resale. This proceeding should be limited to these parties alone and should not involve negotiations or requests for services from a separate corporation such as BAPCO. The Commission has not permitted intervention in this arbitration proceeding from any person other than the Attorney General, who has a statutory right pursuant to KRS 367.160. For the purposes of this arbitration proceeding, the Commission will not address issues involving BAPCO. However, this does not prejudice the rights of AT&T to seek redress from the Commission for any terms and conditions regarding directory publication at a later time, should that become necessary. The Commission holds in abeyance any decision regarding the jurisdictionality of directory publications issues and their effect on the regulated operations of BellSouth.

Having considered the motion for limited intervention and the motion to limit the scope of the arbitration proceedings, the Commission HEREBY ORDERS that:

1. BAPCO's request for limited intervention is denied.
2. This arbitration proceeding will be limited to the terms and conditions for interconnection and resale between AT&T and BellSouth and will not include directory publishing issues.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 21st day of November, 1996.
